CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: DECEMBER 19, 2007

Minutes:

In answer to the Mayor's query, RAMON TORRES, with the Office of Government, Community and Cultural Affairs, explained that, as listed in the backup documentation, the City has provided bike racks for crowd control, cleanup services and communication equipment for past parades.

LEONARD SCOTT, President of the Martin Luther King Jr. Parade Committee, believed that the parade would be well attended this year, because it would be held on the actual holiday. MAYOR GOODMAN expressed his desire to have as much live music as possible, because it would bring energy to the parade. MR. SCOTT indicated that more than 150 entrees were received for live music.
